

New leadership – New Roles and New Times

Join us for a free 1-hour virtual webinar to help you get your school leaders ready for new roles and our new times. We focus on the human side of leadership - from how we deal with uncertainty and adjust in times of change, through to how we can empower others and become resilient leaders.

We are hosting this free session in partnership with Maryland ASCD, Pennsylvania ASCD, and Virginia ASCD to update you on ways you can help your school leaders, whether they are new or experienced, get ready for the year ahead.

What

- All our work is based on our Leadership Curriculum of 33 mindsets (see back) across 4 domains of Relate, Be, Think, Inspire.
- Our journeys are customized to suit the focus areas (e.g., Wellbeing, Leading in Uncertainty, DEI, SEL, Empowering Others, etc. and are customized for key roles.
- All coaching is live via our online platform and scheduled to fit your needs
- We offer not-for-profit pricing to increase accessibility.

Who

From system level leaders at the state or regional level, through to aspiring and emerging leaders in schools and across districts. Leadership is not title-specific role.

Why

- Leadership is key to success
- Leadership is more than instructional
- Leadership influences the school's culture and practices
- The Whole Child needs a Whole Leader

Sign up

btsspark.info/ascd

Hosted by Sean Slade,
Head of BTS Spark, North America, ASCD author, and former Whole Child lead for ASCD 2010-2021.

What are your leadership strengths?

33 Mindsets

